

Anrī Leimanis

Deputy Chairman of the Supervisory Council, Remuneration Committee Member

LMT Deputy Chairperson of the Supervisory Board from February 14, 2013 (LMT Member of the Supervisory Board from November 9, 2012)

Anri Leimanis is a corporate governance expert with more than 20 years experience and serves on the Supervisory Board of LMT as an independent member.

Anri Leimanis also serves as the Vice-Chairperson of the Supervisory Board at RB Rail AS, a joint venture indirectly owned by three countries - Latvia, Estonia and Lithuania – coordinating Rail Baltica greenfield high-speed rail transport infrastructure project.

As part of his community service activities, Anri Leimanis chairs Latvia's PPP Association and actively participates in the work of number of other NGOs.

Anri Leimanis has previously occupied several management positions at Lattelecom Group companies. For 13 years he served as the Chairman of the Management Board of AS First Closed Pension Fund.

Anri Leimanis holds LL.M. degree in Transnational Business Law from University of the Pacific, California, USA and MBA degree from Riga Business School, Latvia. He has completed international board member education program presented by the Baltic Institute of Corporate Governance and performed a corporate governance research program at St John's College, University of Oxford.

