

CV

Mariss Mežgals

Supervisory Council Member,
Audit Committee Member

Supervisory Council Member from April 15, 2014.

Mariss Mezgals is experienced chief financial officer with a demonstrated history of working in the information and communication technology and other services industry.

Professional and management experience gained acting as a business controller, chief finance officer and project manager in different areas such as wholesale, retail, construction segment, information technologies, business consultations, telecommunications, manufacturing, etc.

Latest 10 years he has a track of experience in telecommunication industry specializing in finance and business control area, acting as business controller at IZZI (Baltcom) Telecommunication Company and CFO at SOE Latvian State radio and television center (LVRTC). Latest 5 years he is also a supervisor at LVRTC of the Innovation and science center at Riga TV tower reconstruction project. In addition to his role as a Supervisory Council member in LMT he acts also as a member of audit committee.

He has also completed international board member education program presented by the Baltic Institute of Corporate Governance and actively performs in government institution and SOE levels developing skills in corporate governance area.

Mariss Mezgals holds MBA of EU law and business management at Riga Stradins University and Professional Bachelor's degree in Finance at School of Business and Finance in Latvia. In 2019 received also certificate on completing Mini MBA in Innovations at RTU Riga Business School.

