

Giedrė Kaminskaitė-Salters

Supervisory Council Member,
Audit Committee Member

---

Supervisory Council Member from April 11, 2018.

Giedrė Kaminskaitė-Salters is currently Head of Direct and Digital Sales Channels at Telia Lithuania, having previously served as Head of Legal and Corporate Affairs in the same company.

Giedrė has spent most of her career in the UK, where for a number of years she worked as a senior energy lawyer at the leading international law-firm Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer. She also worked for the British Government, including secondments to the World Bank and the IFC. Prior to returning to Lithuania, Giedrė held the position of the Director of Energy Efficiency programmes at OFGEM, the UK energy regulator.

Giedrė came back to Lithuania in 2014 when she joined the Lithuanian President's office as Chief Adviser on Economic and Social Affairs.

In addition to being a member of the LMT Supervisory Council, Giedrė is Chairwoman of the Board of UAB Litexpo, the Baltics' largest exhibition centre and is a member of the board of UAB Mobilieji Mokejimai (a fintech company set up by three mobility operators in Lithuania).

Giedrė holds a Bachelor's degree from London School of Economics, a Master's from Oxford University and a PhD in Law from Masstricht University.

